The Spiders are in mourning to-day and while they are grieving over the defeat that was dished out to them by Randolph-Macon yesterday, the Ashlanders are celebrating and crowing like baners are celebrating and crowing like bantam roosters.

The game was an exciting one, and a close contest throughout, the score being 2 to 1 in favor of the boys from the little city in the slashea. A large audience gathered to see the game, and but for the superabundance of kicks that emanated from the visitors the spectators would probably have enjoyed themselves.

The kicking which the Randolph-Macon

A RATHER POOR CARD.

Details of the Racing-Events at Other Tracks,

MORRIS-PARK RACE-TRACK, June 16.-Although the weather was warm today the attendance was very large, nearly ten thousand persons being present. A rather poor card was presented, but fair sport was witnessed, nevertheless. Of the three stake races on the programme the one that attracted the most attention was the race for the Bartow stakes for 2-yearolds, in which Keenan, Paladin, and Sir Galahad were pitted against each other. Keenan won in the commonest of canters by two lengths. Sir Galahad, after a punishing drive, beat Paladin a length for the place. In the Glen-Island handicap race, Prig carried off the honors by winning after a hard tussle with Dobbins and Assignee. The other stake race, the New Pickpocket, who came in with a rush at the finish. Two favorites and four well-backed horses were the winners to-day.

First race—six furlongs—The Judge (115, Griffin, 2 to 1) won, Bonnet second, Reiff third, Time, 1:12-1-2.

Second race—Bartow stakes, six furlongs—Keenan (113, Griffin, 3 to 5) won, Sir Galahad second, Paladin third, Time, 1:12-1-4.

Even in the intense heat of summer the theatre and concert-room have their compensations. One such occasion will take place at Barton Heights next Thursday, when Miss Clara Bell Palmer, the gifted and accomplished pianiste, will appear at the Wigwam. Supported by Miss Clarissa Barton, daughter of Mr. J. H. Barton, of the Heights, and the Imperial Quartette. Miss Palmer is a thorough artist, and has lately attracted so much attention by her brilliant playing in this city that she never fails to draw large audiences. Miss Barton peasesses a well-trained and very pleasing contralto voice of good quality, and the Imperial Quartette is one of the best vocal combinations in the city. Mr. Shepard Webb will be the accompanist.

Accidents in Fulton.

This has been a week of accidents for Fulton and vicinity. On Monday Mr. W. S. Wootton, who had only been employed at the Virginis and North Carolina Wheeland Hub-Works about three days, had two of his fingers on his right hand cut off by a saw. He was taken to Harrison's drugstore, and Dr. W. V. Croxton, of Fulton Hill, called in. He, assisted by Dr. Bernard L. Reams, rendered the necessary surgical attention. Mr. Wootton boards at 123 cast Grace street.

Wednesday about 4 P. M. a horse attached to a wagon belonging to Mr. Samuel P. Waddill, of Fulton Hill, was frightened by an electric-car on Williams-burg avenue, and dashed off at break-feck speed, throwing the driver (a colored man) violently to the ground, striking his head on a sharp stone. He was brought to Ridenour's drugstore, and Dr. B. L. Reams called in. On examination it was found that he had a terrible gash about six inches across the top of his head. The Doctor sewed up the wound, and the man was taken home. At last reports he was getting on very nicely.
